

The St. George Juvenile.

The Editors of the Cactus have concluded to Exchange with us at last, and we now have the 27th. No. before us. We hope they will continue until they get to the head of Barkers Gulf Stream of Etiority.

We regret to inform our readers that on account of our press breaking we are left unable to issue our paper at date.

Wanted two billion of people to repent and keep the commandments of God so the will of God may be done on earth as it is done in heaven.

No. 3. St. George, U. T., MARCH 30 1849. Vol. 2

Living by ones wits is mislaid, therefore it is not inserted this time!

We go in for it!
We find the following in The Schenectady Reflector. Signed Cerry O'Lanus.

* * * Now if everybody had as much money as he wanted, he would not have to borrow, or run in debt for anything, and everybody would be in comfortable circumstances and enjoy themselves.

A paper currency is the only currency which makes this happy state of affairs possible.

Let Congress order enough greenbacks to be printed to give every man thousand dollars.

With $,000 extra if he has a wife, and a thousand or each addition to the family? * * *

That's right: — Send me of it out here, so money out here is 'bout as plenty as hen's teeth.

If we had 10,000 dollars we could enlarge the JUVENILE!!!

Babylon and its wonderful works!!

The brazen vessels and the brazen sea carried by Nebuchadnezzar to Babyl-on from Jerusalem were used for this purpose for it is said that he put all the sacred vessels into the house of his god at Babyl-on.—Baal or Baal signifies Lord in the Chaldean language, and Nimrod in the Hebrew language a rebel against God, which was his scripture name by reason of his rebellion against God to follow his own wicked ways.

THE PRINTER.

O Blow ye stormy winds of winter, drive the chilly drifting snow, closely hon-zed the poor printer, beads not how the winds may blow. Click click, his type goes dropping, every comfort mortals need, for our nights were dull in winter, when we had no news to read. While the printer the type he's setting, oft times some pomping jay, leaves the country kindly letting printers whtle for their pay. Then my friends do pay your printer, and dont let him starve and die, but only think how it is in winter with my friends and I.
